

Energy savings with AquaLine Zero

VOITH

The effluent treatment with AquaLine Zero generates a large amount of biogas, which can be used to reduce the primary energy consumption in the paper mill. In our reference line, the CO₂ reduction achieved amounted to about 10%.

Project: New packaging paper line

Customer: Paper mill, Germany

Paper grade: Corrugating Medium, Testliner

Comparison of primary energy consumption

